• Old Business

- Oral histories
 - Have not heard from Door Stop project. McCullough will email them.
 - Council will want to hear progress on oral history project in May.
 - Will attempt transcription on Siebken's existing oral histories. Will work with the transcription program in next couple of weeks to see if it can be installed on multiple computers.
 - Dorothy Taylor worked at Camp Douglas and has not talked about Camp Douglas. Siebken will give her a call.
 - Jim Willox has letters from prisoners who worked as ranch hands. Siebken has copies of these.
- CLG Grant Application
 - We got the contract from the State Monday. Mayor has signed off on it. In finance department now. Grant is for $7,000, City Council provided $5,000.
 - We have contacted Rosenthals to tell them we got the grant.
 - Rosenthals would appreciate some help copying old property records once they begin their assessment.
 - Deputy SHPO would like to visit and talk about review of CLG programs.
- Mullinnix has made progress on obituaries and is on R's now.

• New Business

- Commission vacancy
 - Flaherty's term has expired, so there's an opening. Tell people there's an opening.

- Mullinnix suggested we do something to recognize Flaherty's accomplishments during her tenure on the Commission. We will brainstorm stuff for when she comes back in the spring.
 - Pelton brought up Historic Preservation Month and suggested Kodi Rae's bakery for nomination for the Alliance for Historic Wyoming's calendar.
 - Board was supportive and Pelton emailed nomination to Alliance for Historic Wyoming.
- New project ideas
 - Child's Trail by Pioneer Cemetery. Can collaborate with National Trails Center.
- Budget requests
 - Need to be turned in by March.
 - Travel to conference in NAPC conference in Tacoma, Washington in July.
- Election of officers
 - Siebken moved that McCullough and Pelton remains in positions. Morgan seconded, and motion passed 7-0.

Adjournment

Bauman made the motion, Morgan seconded, and the motion passed 7-0 at 6:40.
