Old Business-

Training updates

- McCullough received notification from National Alliance of Preservation Commissions that their trainings were online as of a few days ago
  - McCullough, Siebken, Bauman, and Evins registered, but no one has watched them yet

Flaherty presentation

- Belated preservation presentation to Betsy Flaherty
- Invited her to council meeting on Monday the 24th at 5:30 to thank her for her preservation efforts
- McCullough will give award, but entire Commission will not attend due to social distancing constraints
  - Award will be two books instead of a plaque

Trail update

- Trail documented, awaiting data processing from field visit
- Mullinnix will follow up on putting posts along ruts to prevent travel on ruts
- The site needs protection, and the Commission should come up with how to do it
- Need to decide what goes on sign
  - National Historic Trails Center will help with content
  - Will incorporate cemetery, Child's Trail, and Fetterman hay reserve boundary
  - Should think about incorporating QR codes into sign to link to brochure

South Douglas District Update

- Rosenberg's visited a couple weeks ago to pull records and they identified a couple more properties to include into the District boundary.

New Business-

Evins motioned to adjourn, Sinnard seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 6:00pm.
